SAGATUG meeting Friday March 12th

Hello SAGATUG Members!

I'm a little late getting this out, since I'm not used to doing this every month: any volunteers? The meeting is tonight, March 12, 2004.

On the Agenda by John Calhoun

I still need some orders for last month's gismo I demoed: It's called a GROOMouse. It cleans the rollers inside your mouse in just a few seconds, as I demonstrated live. To see the official demo, please visit www.groomouse.com.

The Interface Newsletter

We still need someone to take over the Interface Newsletter. I have free software to get you started: "Microsoft Publisher 2003 with Digital Image 9 Professional." This is the newest version that just came out a few weeks ago.

Former Members Alert!

For those of you that contacted me and told me you thought we had disbanded, consider this is a special invitation for you to attend this month's meeting! We MISS you! See you Friday!

Memory Jogger...
